

NALHN Aboriginal Consumer Reference Group

Do you want to be a voice for your community?

The Northern Adelaide Local Health Network (NALHN) is now accepting expressions of interest for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community members to join our established Aboriginal Consumer Reference Group (ACRG).

The group currently meets monthly to:

- Provide leadership, advocacy and advice to Northern Adelaide Local Health Network
- Encourage communication, participation and the sharing of information and knowledge
- Gain new skills and experience
- Enhance our health services to be more culturally responsive
- Celebrate and embrace the successes of the service

We want to hear from you if you:

- Identify as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander
- Can commit to attending our meetings once per month
- Youth applicants are strongly encouraged (18-25 years)
- Would embrace the opportunity to learn and advocate for your community

➤ Participants are reimbursed for their time and advice

➤ Transport available

➤ Relevant Police Checks required, we can support you with this process

➤ If interested contact the Aboriginal Community Development Coordinator
